

The Misdemeanor Process

Classes of Misdemeanors:

This Office is responsible for the prosecution of all misdemeanor cases that are filed in Bandera County. "Misdemeanor" is defined in the law as any crime where the maximum possible jail time is one year or less. There are three categories of misdemeanors: Class A; Class B; and Class C.

Class A misdemeanors are punishable by a fine of up to $4,000 and/or confinement in jail of up to one year. Some examples of Class A misdemeanor offenses include assault causing bodily injury, driving while intoxicated second offense, theft of property valued at $500 to $1,500, and resisting arrest.

Class B misdemeanors are punishable by a fine of up to $2,000 and/or confinement in jail of up to six months. Some examples of Class B misdemeanor offenses include driving while intoxicated first offense, possession of marijuana less than two ounces, and telephone harassment.

Both Class A and Class B misdemeanors are handled in the County Court of Bandera County, Texas.

Class C misdemeanors are punishable by a fine of $500 or less and no jail time. Those cases are typically heard in the four (4) Justice of the Peace courts in Bandera County.

Arraignment Docket in County Court:

Misdemeanor defendants are initially given a first appearance setting. Defendants should dress appropriately for court. When the Defendant appears for court, the Judge asks whether the Defendant chooses to plea guilty, no contest, or not guilty. Prior to entering a plea, the Defendant will receive a plea offer from the County Attorney. Defendants who plea not guilty must decide whether to represent themselves or hire an attorney to defend them in court. Some defendants may qualify for an appointed attorney if the Judge determines that the Defendant meets indigency requirements (Financial Affluent).

At the present time, the Arraignment Docket for Misdemeanor Cases is the 1st Tuesday of each month. The Arraignment Docket for Hot Check Cases is also the 1st Tuesday of each month.

Pretrial Docket:

At Pretrial Docket the Court hears various pretrial motions filed on behalf of defendants which challenge the legality of the arrest or request additional information about the case. At the present time, Pretrial Hearings are held the 2nd Tuesday of each month. Contact the County Clerk for your Hearing Date.

Bench Trial:

A defendant may waive his or her right to a trial by jury. The case can then be heard by the Judge in a trial before the Court. The prosecutor must also agree to waive trial by jury in order to have a trial before the Court. The Judge decides the guilt or innocence of the Defendant as well as any punishment. Bench Trials are presently held as set by the Court. Contact the County Clerk for your trial date.

Jury Trial:

Six people sit as a jury in the criminal trial of the Defendant in misdemeanor cases. The jury hears the testimony and evidence. After the evidence has been presented, the jury "deliberates" or discusses the facts of the case amongst themselves and decides a verdict of guilty or not guilty. The jury may only return a verdict of guilty if they are convinced beyond a reasonable doubt of the Defendant's guilt. Jury Trials are presently held on the 3rd Tuesday of each month.
